Discussions of last minutes

1. Update on the recycle bin of its cost and what can be thrown in there. We reminded people of the 1year trial.
2. Update was given on the stretch of Neuhorst road that was paved this year and the struggle it will be to get the rest of it done.

Ray Friesen motion to except the reading of last year's minutes. Dave Quirt second it Carried.

New Business

1. Discussions were held on dog issues. A letter reminding people that dogs are to be kept tied up or penned up and keep them quiet through the night.
2. A rink care taker needs to be hired Corie Weibe will ask his son if he's interested .
3. Linda Braun stepped down from looking after the hall Dave and Nora Bueckert were the only candidates applying for the job. Jonathan Stampe motioned to give the job to them. Corie Weibe second it. Carried

4. Discussions were held on the hamlet road and questions were asked why council hadn't got all the pot holes fixed this year. We told them that calls had been made to corman park and it didn't get done. Council said they would have to address the issue to corman park in spring. Also concerns were raised on the south end curve of near collisions happening there. Suggestions were made to get a curve and slow down sign put up.
5. Discussions were made about quads and snowmobiles driving with undo care and attention through the hamlet. As a result some near collisions have occurred at the end of the drive ways also they are prohibited from driving on the hamlet grounds behind the rink due to the fact that there are children playing there .
6. Dave Bueckert mentioned that Mike Bueckert had sacrificed his time and equipment for clearing snow and grass cutting this year and charge the hamlet a dime . Jonathan Stampe motioned to do something in appreciation for his effort's Corie Wiebe second it.

Carried.

7. Shawn May suggested to have an out door wiener roast at the hall om the 29th of dec. starting at 6 oclock . Everyone was in favour of it .

8. Linda Braun has stepped down from the secretary treasurer position. AS there were not enough people present to hold a forum, it is tabled to be addressed at spring meeting .

9. Robyn Mckay motion to adjourn meeting Marg Doell second it Carried .
